

Citizens Protest $1 Xerox Charge

Complaints by individuals that they are being charged excessive amounts for xeroxing at Placentia City Hall were being issued this week and lodged with Mayor George De Jesus.

One of the complainants, Mrs. Ruth (Max) Ellis said that she has been charged $1 a page for each page of materials of which she has requested a copy. In total it has cost her $116 for a total of 116 pages.

However, a parks and recreation employee did xerox a few pages for her at 10 cents a copy.

Mrs. Ellis said further that she believes the $1 charge is illegal as the state code, section 6257 reads, effective January 1, 1976: "A request for a copy of an identifiable public record or information produced therefrom, or a certified copy of such record, shall be accompanied by payment of a reasonable fee or deposit established by the state or local agency provided such fee shall not exceed ten cents per page or the prescribed statutory fee where applicable."

Mrs. Ellis said, this to her means 10 cents a page.

Charles Post III, Placentia City Attorney, said he has had no request from a barely formed city council for information on the matter. Mayor De Jesus stated this week however, that his request for a legal brief on the subject will be forthcoming to the City Attorney immediately.

Post added that the subject of xeroxing costs has been raised in staff meetings and that it was decided to go along with a $1 fee. Placentia code adopted in 1971 in section 5.04.130 states: "Sale of xerox copies. The fee for sale of xerox copies shall be as follows: $1 for first copy of original and $.50 for each additional copy."

The City Attorney said the justification for this is the fact that staff time is involved in looking up records and that this can be an expense. The rest of the fee would be based on this premise.

Mrs. Ellis said however, that she has been doing her own research and that all that has been required is for someone to xerox the actual material. Her endeavors have covered such items as city funds spent for expenses by City Administrator Edwin Powell and telephone calls made out of various public buildings.

Post added that the decision at staff level had been based some what on a survey of other Orange County city xeroxing fees made by Frank Dunnivant, the city's Director of Finance.

Dunnivant, who is currently at work on the city budget, said the figures were not immediately available, but that the city of Brea charges $1 each for the first three pages and 50 cents a page thereafter for some items, such as police and accident reports. However, general xeroxing costs 25 cents a page.

He said that a fee revision proposal will be brought before the city council soon but did not indicate whether xeroxing would be included in it.

Dunnivant said that it would not be practical to place a xerox machine in the public area at City Hall "because there is such a low volume of demand for the service. It wouldn't work." The xerox machine at City Hall is considerably removed from the public as is the one at the police facility.

A xerox just across the mall in the Placentia Library building is so well used that board members report that at 10 cents a copy, it makes sufficient profit to allow the library all its own xeroxing at no cost.

Dunnivant, however, said that that was a different situation because no staff time would be required for the public to xerox pages of books from the shelves.

Adding to the protest is Peter Laborde who says he has spent "a small fortune" on the research he has done on the widening of Chapman Avenue which is scheduled to take his three-office real estate building. Cost to him has ranged from $1 a page to 50 cents a page, the second page charge.

The Placentia Courier also has found that the press is no exception. A request for xerox copies of nominators of the various city council candidates in the recent election, material already available to the press, was quoted at a cost of a $1 a page. This was considered exorbitant. Since the material could not leave City Hall, time was required to hand copy each of the ten

BRADFORD HOME

What do you do with a Heritage Home that 1,726 of participating voters have said they want saved even at taxpayers expense of 9,946 ballots have denied city council this privilege?

That is a quandry which will be brought before the new city council, possibly at its next meeting.

With a 220 no vote margin, do you try to save the house at no expense to the taxpayer?

The Bradford House is one home. There are other heritage homes currently in the spotlight. One in a neighboring city is the bright yellow Victorian Cottage which has been moved onto the grounds which will serve as an arboretum on the campus at Cal State Fullerton.

The Heritage House will be dedicated Saturday and Sunday, May 15 and 16. There will be special ceremonies and tours are open to the public. This building will serve as an office for the arboretum into which the city of Fullerton will expend $700,000 in funding over a three year period.

But city money was not spent for the house, which had to be purchased, unlike the Bradford House which was a gift from Bradford family members. Purchasing and refurbishing has cost more than $100,000 with Friends of the Arboretum picking up half of the cost and the North Orange County Board of Realtors the other $50,000. Sizeable amounts.

The city of Placentia already owns the Bradford House, a fact which may not always be true. Members of the Bradford family, according to nonagenda conversation at the last city council meeting, are recommending that it be turned over to Cal State Fullerton for use of dignitaries visiting the campus from far off places on a limited time span. A kind of a Placentia Hilton for visiting VIP'S. Details will be forthcoming later but the city apparently would no longer own the home. Cal State Fullerton would, assuming the expense of it also.

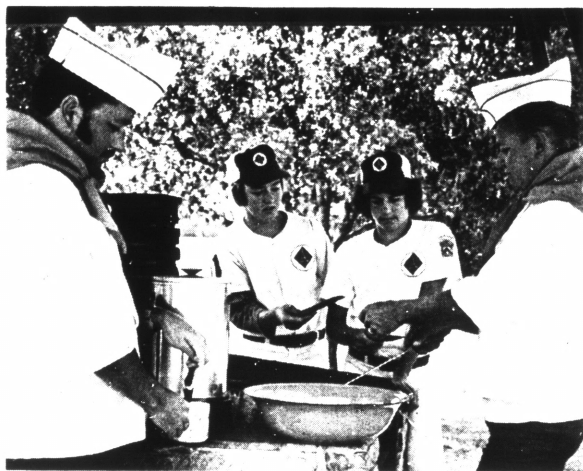

The list of houses in use in connection with public places, would no doubt be endless. One that comes to mind is the former home of E. Manchester Boddy, owner-editor of the old Los Angeles Daily News. It is called Hospitality House and is the focal point of the 165-acre Descanso Gardens which at one time was the Boddy estate. It is in La Canada.

There is no charge for viewing the gardens, an array of color in the spring months, boasting over 100,000 camellia plants, in a natural California Live Oak forest.

The house, which is of 1939 vintage, is being put to a variety of uses. Twelve art exhibits are hung each year on the walls. Various classes are conducted in a modernized kitchen which boasts a wall of plants. The kitchen also is used to cook and serve groups in the adjoining dining room. Other rooms have been rearranged to accommodate regular meetings. Upstairs are the offices of the Descanso Gardens Guild, Inc.

Many improvements in the gardens have been donated. For those who appreciate a four-acre rose garden the flowers will be in bloom this week end or the next. Hours at Descanso are 9 to 5 daily and admission is free. Tram tours

BREAKFAST IS SERVED--For a number of Placentia families this Sunday, breakfast will be served in the park. The Placentia Little League will be holding its annual Pancake Breakfast, its main source of funds for the ambitious baseball program parent-sponsored each year in the city. Breakfast is only $1 and everyone is welcome from 7 to 11 a.m. in Kraemer Park. Tom Redd pours coffee as players Craig Pearson and Tom Redd, Jr. present tickets to Grant Pearson.

Pancakes Flip For Little League

One of the big events of the year in Placentia, the annual Little League Pancake Breakfast, will take place Sunday, May 16 at Kraemer Park, starting at 7 a.m.

The price of breakfast will be $1 and will include pancakes, sausage, orange juice, coffee or milk.

Tickets can be purchased from any Little Leaguer and contain special price coupons for McDonalds and Ricco Deli-Pizza.

Breakfast will be served from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m., the group reports.

Decision Imminent On PUSD-YL Merger

Whether the schools of Yorba Linda will ever merge with those of the Placentia Unified School District, will be decided in the very near future, it was indicated here Monday night.

Speaking as the one strong supporter of the merger, PUSD Board of Trustees vice president, John Balducci, presiding over the Monday night board meeting, pressed for an immediate PUSD staff position paper on the annexation.

He was overruled, however, by other members of the board, who expressed the opinion that the Fullerton Union High School Board (which serves Yorba Linda in a high school capacity) might take some kind of action at their Tuesday night meeting, making any further conversation on the topic impractical.

Balducci also furthered interest in pursuing special legislation from the state which might solve the financial problems in the complex triangle merger.

Discouraging other PUSD trustees was a PUSD staff document in which Superintendent of Schools, John O. Tynes outlined some of the problems that might have to be surmounted in effecting such a merger.

The plan is for the Yorba Linda District to join the PUSD and leave the Fullerton District.

Among items listed were:

(1) PUSD cannot afford the phase-in program which was a condition advanced both by the County Department of Education and the FUHSD staff, as it would have a very serious monetary effect upon our existing programs if we were to pay the difference in the cost of educating students which exists between the two districts.

(2) To upgrade the services and give the support personnel to the Yorba Linda Elementary School District that now exists in the Placentia Unified School District would also be an additional cost which we feel we cannot afford with our present base revenue.

(3) After studying the master plan of the Yorba Linda School District we feel that the cost of improving their plants, which would have to come from our general fund, would greatly endanger the level of support we give to our sites. There is no question in my mind that if the annexation were approved, there would be an instant demand for this improvement to take place.

(4) The site owned by FUHSD which they wish to sell to us at fair market value (whatever that means) is not in a location that would benefit us at this time. It is too close to El Dorado High School.

(5) We feel that no exchange of personnel could take place without careful screening to see if the expertise of their certificated and classified employees matches the needs of our student population.

(6) Due to the rural country living philosophy of the Yorba Linda community that comprises their school district, we feel that we would have a substantial increase in transportation costs if we were to follow the policy of the PUSD of busing student where there are inadequate sidewalks and other safety problems.

(7) Since this discussion has been going on we have found no enthusiastic acceptance of the idea from the patrons of either PUSD or the Yorba Linda School District.

PUSD Trustee Dr. William Yates also pointed out that he was disappointed with the letter received from the Yorba Linda Board.

This correspondence was in reply to communication from PUSD that the Yorba Linda board had not as yet filed their formal petition for annexation.

Paul Armstrong, president of the Yorba Linda Board, stated in the letter that his board believes that each of the three school systems should present a package simultaneously to the County Superintendent

City To Add Motorcycle Corp

Those two mounted motorcycle policemen, to be seen soon on Placentia city streets, will be Placentia property!

With a strong protest from Councilman Jack Gomez and strong support from Councilman Donald Holt, the city council at its Tuesday session voted four to one to approve conditions of a state Traffic Safety Grant which will provide two more policemen and motorcycles for the city of Placentia.

Mayor Pro Tem William Rashford had a mild protest over the fact that "the program should be more than self-supporting by the end of the first year."

Rashford: "I tend to agree with Jack Gomez. I don't know whether I agree enough to vote against the issue, but to me the motorcycle is a hazardous type vehicle and as Jack pointed out, it won't be used in bad weather. I do not like the idea of pointing out that it will be self supporting."

"I can hear the watch commander saying, 'OK you guys, you're not being self supporting today. I want you to get out there and be self supporting....'"

Police Chief Norman Traub brought the proposal before city council pointing out that the request for the state grant is based on the need to better control the city's traffic problems. Traub suggested that the special police officers be used to control such practices as tailgating.

The proposal paper reports: "The city has a serious traffic problem. Injury accidents have increased an average of 20 per cent for the past three years. Non-injury accidents increased an average of 15 per cent for the same period. Hit and run accidents have increased 105 per cent over 1972. Traffic counts conducted by the city Engineering Division indicated an average increase of 59.9 per cent in traffic flow from 1970 at our major intersections."

"The primary goal of the program is to reduce traffic accidents through the establishment of a traffic unit which will coordinate an effective traffic management system and traffic enforcement program."

"We will increase the number of hazardous citations issued by 25 per cent at the end of the first grant year and to 50 per cent at the end of the second grant year."

The grant of $83,916.39 will cover a 26-month period. The city is expected to fund $22,920 (the cost for

Piacenza Untouched By Earthquakes

The recent devastating earthquakes in Italy were felt in Piacenza, but no damage was reported in Placentia's sister city, Mrs. Eva Carter reported this week.

Mrs. Carter, who is in charge of a tour of Placentia youngsters, who will be making a trip to Piacenza in June, said that she has talked to Piacenza by phone and that the quake was felt there, but no damage or loss of life has been reported in the Italian city.

The earthquakes will not affect the trip, Mrs. Carter stated, as far as is known now.

The visit is one planned in return for an expedition by Piacenza youngsters who visited here last year. The series of expeditions was an outgrowth of pen pal letters which were written by both Placentia and Piacenza school children, to each other.

Local Man Arrested Over Toy "Scheme"

A Placentia man is one of two people who have been arrested in an alleged million dollar toy fraud, the Orange County District Attorney's office reported this week.

Taken into custody and being held on $100,000 bond, are James G. Ritchie, 32, of 1643 Kingston Road, Placentia, secretary-treasurer of Excalibur Toys, Inc. based in Irvine and Richard R. McGregor, 35 of San Marcos, vice president. Still being sought is company president Hugh Brian Welzel of Santa Ana.

Deputy District Attorney Arnold Westra said that charges of grand theft and conspiracy are being brought against the pair in connection with a scheme where small investors paid up to $6,000 for a be your own boss business opportunity.

Customers received molds to fashion fiberglass hulls of model boats controlled by radio. The company agreed in writing to buy back a specified number of the boats at $25 apiece. Contractors were required to buy their materials through Excalibur.

Westra reports that there was no market for the boats and only a few were brought back. These are in warehouses in Irvine. The company is reportedly in bankruptcy.

Excalibur was also involved in Hayward, California as International Toys, Inc. and as Texas International Products, Inc. in Arlington, Texas, Westra stated. He said that the system apparently was supposed to work by attracting new contract money fast enough to pay off old contracts with completed boats to return.

Westra said that other such schemes are rampant in the state at this time and urged investors to look closely at any such program.

Odd Jobs Require OKs

Placentia homeowners were reminded this week that do-it-yourself or professional projects must have city inspection.

Among approvals required by city code are a $15 inspections and report mandatory on the sale of any home in the city. The city's building division emphasized that this is to ensure safety and to see that the building is up to city code.

The department also listed some of the items which require permits: any major-additions to the original building such as room additions, covered patios, playhouses, swimming pools, gazebos and structures in the rear or side yards.

Hawks Go On Championship Collecting

BY BRIAN HILDERBRAND

The El Dorado Golden Hawks garnered two more Orange League championships this week, earning the crowns in both track and golf.

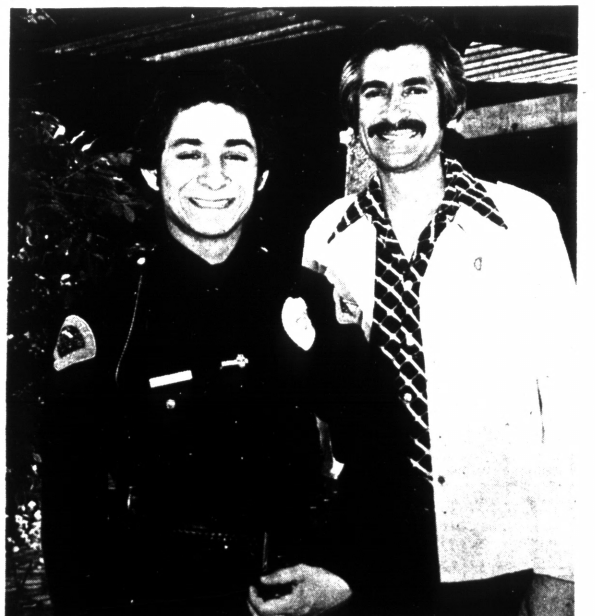

Second in track competition was Esperanza and in golf, Canyon competed.

The Hawks have been accumulating an impressive array of titles, adding the tennis league championship last week and the girl basketball team 3-A CIF crown last month.

Hawk men athletes had already by that time won titles in CIF water polo and wrestling and second place in swimming and football.

Other championships are still to be decided.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON--Unique in Placentia Police history is the father-son team of Joe and Robin Rodarte. Rodarte, senior, has been with the Placentia Police Department for 15 years and is currently an investigator. Son Robin last week was accorded the honor of Reserve Officer of the Year, presented at the annual police banquet.

PUSD Fills Administrative Post

Keith T. Larick, 36, curriculum director at Oceanside Unified School District, was selected from among 143 applicants as the new assistant superintendent of instructional services for the Placentia Unified School District beginning July 1.

The new assistant superintendent has been with the Oceanside district since 1973 as director of special programs and director of curriculum. Previously he served for eight years as an elementary principal in the Upland School District, where he taught from 1961-63.

In his new position in Placentia, he will be in charge of the district's instructional program and pupil personnel services, providing leadership and assistance to all 21 schools in the development, implementation, maintenance and evaluation of curriculum.

He will oversee the areas of special education, vocational and career education, pupil services, music, evaluation and research and instructional media.

Larick holds a B.A. degree in psychology from La Verne College and a M.A. in administration from California State College, Los Angeles. He currently is a doctoral candidate at the University of Southern California.

In his previous administrative positions, he has had extensive experience in development and implementation of federal and state programs, affirmative action and community relations.

He has been a graduate program instructor for La Verne and Chapman colleges and Pepperdine and California State universities and is serving as director of the Professional Development Center for Oceanside's ECE masters program through La Verne.

Larick and his wife Sharon live in Oceanside with their daughters, Lisa, 8, and Keli, 6. He has been active in church and community activities, including serving on boards for Boys' Club of America, YMCA and Oceanside Community Action Corp.

Dr. Marvin Stewart, who has been acting assistant superintendent, has been named Director of Secondary Education for PUSD.

Andrews Named Head Of Esperanza

David L. Andrews, 38, assistant principal of Katella High School in Anaheim, has been selected as principal of Esperanza High School in the Placentia Unified School District for the coming school year.

He has held his present position since 1973, serving as assistant principal of Tustin High School from 1970-73, where he was coordinator of administrative services from 1968-70.

Before entering the administrative field, Andrews taught history, geography, mathematics and physical education in high schools in Tustin and Centinela Valley school districts. He has coached track and basketball and has been head varsity coach of football and baseball.

The new principal holds his B.A. degree in social science and physical education from San Jose State University and his M.A. degree in secondary school administration from Los Angeles State University, taking additional graduate work at the University of California, Irvine and Cal State Fullerton.

In his previous administrative posts, Andrews has been responsible for supervision of staff and curriculum, plant maintenance and operations, textbooks, scheduling and registration and student discipline. He currently is a member of the Anaheim Union High School District's curriculum management committee and chairman of the district drug abuse program.

Andrews and his wife live in Tustin with their three children.

of Schools. A straw vote of the Yorba Linda Board, unanimously favored annexation to the PUSD although there were some intermediate reservations.

Balducci at the Monday night meeting stated: "My basic concern is that we sit here, three school districts, apparently unwilling or not smart enough to do something about this problem. I think we have the opportunity here to help those people do something about their problems."

"If it does cost the taxpayers of Placentia dollars or cost the schools of Placentia some educational advantage or benefit, then I would be with you (indicating the other board members present). I would say no way."

"My point is if we can narrow it down to money, then we can approach the state. Yorba Linda can no longer legally unify on their own lines. Their only visible alternative is to annex to us or remain as they are. I think we have the power to make something happen if we take the initiative instead of continuing to react. I want to see it brought to a head...Or send them a letter telling them to forget it."

McFadden Gets Vote Of Approval

A rousing vote of approval was accorded McFadden Elementary School last week by members of the parent Educational Facilities Planning Committee who toured the facility at their meeting.

The school is the oldest in the Placentia Unified School District. "Let's improve it and continue it on as it is," one committee member

Bradford Heritage House, Placentia

THE ORIGINAL of this pen and ink drawing of the landmark Bradford House is missing and anyone knowing of its whereabouts is urged to contact the artist, Lynn Van Dam at 993-5946. A reward is being offered.

Bradford House Drawing Is Missing

An original pen and ink drawing of the Heritage Bradford Home, which has been used as an insignia in the citizen effort to save the turn-of-the-century house, has been missing since October.

Placentia artist Lynn Van Dam said the 20 by 24 inch drawing, which was entered in a juried art show at a last year's Placentia Heritage Festival Days event, was found missing at the show held on the ground floor of the Backs Community Building.

Efforts to find the work, which is framed under glass with brown oval mat, have been unsuccessful.

Beverly Lunger, president of the Placentia Art Association, the sponsors of the show, said that a small reward will be offered for the return of the valued work. Mrs. Lunger can be reached at 528-5468. The attractive pen and ink sketch had been used to produce signed prints, sold for funds to save the Bradford House. It, along with other VanDam drawings of scenes in the home, also comprise illustrated note paper.

Questions On Chapman Avenue

Copy to the Placentia Courier
Placentia City Clerk Edmund M. Ponce

Dear Placentia City Clerk Edmund M. Ponce,

For the past few years I have requested from you a master plan for Chapman Avenue (from Placentia Ave. to Kraemer Blvd.) and you have consistently denied having any plan.

On January 13, 1976, I requested from your secretary the Precise Alignment Map of Chapman Avenue from Bradford Avenue to Kraemer Blvd. She told me that she did not know if there was such a map in your files, but that she would check with you and let me know your reply. Several times since then we have phoned her because she has not responded to our request and we received the same answer from her as before. Therefore, I am asking you directly for Chapman Avenue Master Plans (from Placentia Ave. to Kraemer Blvd.) and would appreciate your personal reply in writing.

Also, I would like to know if you have precise alignment maps of Melrose Ave., Madison Ave., and Bradford Ave., and if so, I would like to view them.

At this time I am also requesting a certified copy of the City Council minutes of the January 19, 1976 Special Meeting, which dealt with Chapman Avenue.

Sincerely,
Peter Laborde

Gomez said he believed the city is too small for motorcycle police but Traub insisted that "other cities our size have them." Gomez also pointed out that motorcycles are not functional in bad weather or at night and that he believed patrol cars to be more practical.

Holt: "I think when you are working traffic, you need the flexibility of that two-wheeled vehicle to move in and out of traffic."

Chamber Seeks City Building

In a nonagenda item before the Placentia City Council last week, it was reported that the Placentia Chamber of Commerce would like to move its offices next door to a city owned building on South Bradford Avenue, south of Chapman.

The proposed headquarters is the former City Hall Annex, which at one time housed the planning department.

Edwin T. Powell, City Administrator, making the comments, pointed out that the chamber is now subsidized by the city, including rent and utilities. The use of a public building would save money.

The Annex, recently used by members of the Placentia Jaycees, has been on the market for a year and a half with an asking price of $36,500 including a 6 per cent real estate commission. No one has offered to buy it at that price.

Rather than have the building remain idle, the chamber could move into it and maintain it at no cost to the city, Powell pointed out.

The Jaycees, former tenants of the building have dwindled in numbers and are no longer holding regular meetings, it was reported.

Newfoundland Letter

Katherine M. Murphy, Secretary, Placentia Area Historical Society
Dear Katherine Murphy:

I have received a copy of your letter of March 15, 1976 from Betty Mead of the Placentia Courier. I was very pleased to receive this letter and I will see if I can be of any help to you.

I am sending you a brochure that was published for the dedication of our new Civic Center. In this you will find a brief history of Placentia and some old pictures. There is also later information given. Also enclosed you will find a map of our city, published in 1973. On the reverse side you will find a smaller map that shows the location of Placentia in regard to other cities. While the map shows the City it does not show the boundaries of our school district. The District is much larger than the City, taking in part of Fullerton, Anaheim and Yorba Linda. The District extends eastward to Orange County's east line that you can locate on the small map. Before incorporation, the Community of Placentia extended westward as far as State College Boulevard. Some of our neighboring cities made some land grabs. On this enclosure you will also find other information, such as the number of schools, churches, etc.

We are limited as to small items of historical interest that we can send you. However, I am sending you some box labels which are now collector's items. Some are quite valuable. For many years citrus fruit was shipped in wooden boxes. Labels were pasted on the end of the boxes to designate quality of fruit and the packing house that shipped it. A number of years ago the wooden boxes gave way to paper cartons. This was the end of the labels. At one time we had five packing houses in Placentia but we now have only two. And most of the fruit for these houses comes from outside Placentia. Subdivisions, shopping centers, and industry have pushed out the citrus groves. You will note there are two labels from the Yorba District. This district joins Placentia on the east and is in our School District.

I am also enclosing a picking ring, also a collector's item. In years gone by a packing house might get an order for so many oranges of a certain size. So the picking ring was used to measure the orange before it was picked. You will note there is a small ring and a large ring together. The small one was for holding, the large one to determine the size. You will also notice a figure stamped on the ring. This is known as the size of the orange. It indicates the number of oranges of that size that will be contained in a packed box. The practice now is to pick all the fruit from a tree at the same time and the grading for size is done in the packing house by rolling the fruit down a special table with different size openings for the fruit to fall through. The grading for quality is all done by hand. In early days each orange was hand wrapped in tissue paper before packing. Now the fruit is run through a liquid sealer for protection. As soon as I can have some copies made I will send you a few pictures showing a young citrus grove, harvesting citrus, the interior of a packing house, what a section of Placentia looked like from the air some fifteen years ago. And of course I will include a picture of Sarah Jane McFadden.

Sarah Jane Earl was born in New London, Ohio, January 22, 1846. She later came to Alameda, California where she met and married William M. McFadden December 18, 1866. She came to Placentia in 1869 with her daughter Carrie. She died August 18, 1908.

William McFadden was born in Pittsburg, Penn. February 19, 1840 and came to San Francisco in 1864. He came to Placentia in 1868 and in 1869 he bought, with his brother, 100 acres on what is now the S.W. corner of Placentia Ave. and Yorba Linda Boulevard. He built a small four room house, hand dug, with the aid of his brother, a well four feet square and 137 feet deep for water. He then sent for his wife and daughter. He died July 21, 1902. You will find more about Mr. McFadden in the brochure. If you wish more information about the family I would suggest you write Mrs. Paul Brower, 1829 Valencia Ave., Placentia, California 92670.

I might introduce myself before telling more about Placentia. I am George G. Key. My mother came to California in 1869 at the age of seven. It took her eight months by ox drawn covered wagon. Mother lived in Placentia for a short time before moving to Pasadena. Father came to Los Angeles, California, in 1882 from Ontario, Canada. It took him a week by train. Father also moved on to Pasadena where he met and married my mother in 1886. They came to Placentia in 1893 where my father was the superintendent of the 110 acre Southern California Semi-Tropical Fruit Company until 1900. (See enclosed map) I came to this ranch in 1896. It took me nine months via the "Stork Route". I believe I am the second oldest person born in Placentia still living here, and I believe my wife is the third oldest. Oscar Carlson, I believe, is the oldest. There are six or eight people I can name who were born in Placentia who are older and still living, but not in Placentia.

On the enclosed map I have marked, with red ink, the 100 acre ranch bought by the McFaddens in 1869. It was located on the S.W. corner of what is now Placentia Avenue and Yorba Linda Boulevard. (Yorba Linda Blvd. was developed in the last few years) A little red dot in the N.E. corner of the ranch shows where the McFaddens first little home was located. The red X shows where they built their large home in 1888. This ranch is now covered by apartments and a large shopping center.

Joining the McFadden ranch on the south, outlined in red, is the Southern California Semi-Tropical Fruit Company 110 acre ranch that was established in 1872 by Richard Gilman. In 1880 he planted forty acres of this ranch to Valencia oranges. This was the first commercial Valencia grove in the State of California. The red dot on the east end of the ranch marks the location of the home where I was born. We lived in this home until 1898 when father built a large home on the twenty acre ranch he had bought in 1893. The University of California, Fullerton, includes the west end of the 110 acre ranch. Apartments cover the east end.

The ranch father bought in 1893 was located on the N.W. corner of what is now Placentia Avenue and Bastanchury Road. (Bastanchury has been developed in the last few years.) The ranch is outlined in red. It is all now in homes except a little over two acres surrounding the red dot that marks the location of the old home. This is where my wife and I live. It is the next to oldest home still standing in Placentia. The oldest home is an adobe built by Juan Ontiveros in 1837. (See red dot on Crowther Avenue just west of Kraemer Boulevard.)

For a number of years I have been establishing a museum on our ranch and in our home. As a service to the area I have tours of Scouts, Brownies, school classes and adult groups. (Come down and I will give you a tour) The old home has been entered in the National Register of Historical Places and negotiations are under way for the State and County to eventually take over the place for a public museum. You can see by the locations of the homes I have marked on the map that I was born and raised near the McFaddens. However, I cannot say I remember the senior McFaddens, but I did know all of the children quite well. (In speaking of the "museum", I should mention that it includes the snow shoes and boots my brother used when he was a doctor working with your great Dr. Wilfred Grenfell in Newfoundland.)

The ranch my father bought and developed to citrus was at the N.W. edge of the citrus area, and was at the beginning of the hill area. To the west and to the north for several miles the hill area was used for dry farming, for hay and grain, and the raising of sheep and cattle. The Wagners sheep ranch cornered father's ranch. At one time the Wagners had as many as 15,000 sheep. To the south and east of our ranch vineyards were giving way to walnuts and citrus. Citrus, mostly Valencias, gradually took over most of what today is the City of Placentia. Homes, shopping centers and industry have pushed out most of the citrus groves. After 1912 oil played quite a part in Placentia, being developed mostly on the outskirts to the north and east. Most of these wells are now gone.

Development has brought many fine people to Placentia and it is still a fine place to live. But it is no longer the quiet, relaxing place I knew as a boy. Then every one knew everyone and stood ready to help if needed. I wonder what the next eighty years will bring.

I am happy to know you are working to preserve your history. My advice is to work fast before it is too late. While I started collecting some fifteen years ago, it was almost too late.

I should mention that in 1970 I wrote to the City of Placentia, Newfoundland and received a nice reply from Mr. Thomas O'Keefe, Town Clerk. He also sent some literature and a medallion from your 300th anniversary. I passed on to our local paper some of the information Mr. O'Keefe sent me. From his letter I understand you believe "Placentia" means "a pleasant place". This is the meaning we generally use here.

Thank you for being interested in our City. I hope I have been of some help. If you have questions, please feel free to write.

Sincerely,
George G. Key

LINDA VISTA PHARMACY

Not all the laborers who worked on the pyramids in ancient Egypt were slaves. Some were freemen who gave a year of their lives to the project in return for the blessings of their gods. Their only pay was a daily ration of beer and a loaf of bread.

Egyptian beer was made by mixing half-baked bread with water and letting the mixture set in the sun for a few days. It is reported to have had remarkable strength-giving properties and even the ability to "cleanse the body of evil spirits". Could it be possible that ancient Egyptian beer was a distant relative of modern penicillin? Who can say for sure?

We can say that you'll be pleased with our fast, friendly prescription service here at LINDA VISTA PHARMACY, where "we're in the business for YOUR health."

MAKE EVERY KILOWATT COUNT.

Edison has over 80 conservation tips. Here are a few.

THINKING ABOUT BUYING A NEW APPLIANCE?

Select a model that saves energy.

Two years ago, just about everyone realized our nation had energy problems. Today, some people aren't sure those problems still exist.

They do. Our country's energy problems are still very real. And the imported low-sulphur fuel oil required for generating electricity is extremely expensive. So, in looking for an appliance, it makes sense to check out the efficiency ratings of various models. It can mean savings for you and our country.

Compare refrigerators. Did you know that some models use up to 35% less electricity than others? If you're in the market for a new one, inspect comparable models. Then ask how much electricity each requires. And choose a model based on your family's needs. A refrigerator or freezer that's too large for your family uses more energy than is necessary.

New energy-saving appliances. Many automatic clothes dryers have moisture-sensing devices. They shut off the machine when clothes are sufficiently dry. This prevents over-drying and saves energy. Some dishwashers have an energy-saving switch which allows dishes to air-dry without heat. It can cut the use of electricity up to 50%.

- ☐ If you're buying a room air conditioner, check the Energy Efficiency Rating (EER) numbers. The higher the number shown, the more cooling you get from the electricity that you use.
- ☐ Television sets with an all-solid-state chassis use half as much electricity as tube-type sets.
- ☐ Some water heaters are far better insulated than others. Be sure to ask about this. And select the right size.

Free conservation booklet. For more of Edison's ways to conserve energy, write for our free booklet: "Conservation," Edison, P.O. Box 800, Rosemead, CA 91770.

WINNING RUN—Nick Garcia slides safely into home to score run that gave Valencia a 5-4 win over Brea. Garcia barely made the plate ahead of tag on passed ball play.

Tigers Move Up

Valencia fans didn't have much to cheer about during the CIF season, but at least there is one consolation.

The Tigers seemed doomed to dwindle in the cellar of the Orange League standings, but last week they made a praiseworthy effort to win two games to tie Canyon for fourth place and gain a little respect.

Last week, the Tigers behind the one-hit pitching of Mike McCa'll (4-3), shut out Esperanza by a score of 4-0. Left fielder Frank Martinez opened the fourth inning with a smash homer over the left field fence.

The line score on the game was Valencia, 4 runs, 5 hits and 2 errors. Esperanza, no runs, 1 hit and 6 errors.

Thursday the Tigers made it a clean sweep by clawing Brea-Olinda 5-4. However, it was not easy. Valencia held a 3-run lead going into the top of the Brea 7th. But a few big hits like Randy Spink's bases-loaded double and Randy Crich's RBI single were damaging enough to tie the score.

With two outs in the Valencia 7th, centerfielder Nick Garcia raced home on a wild pitch to score the winning run.

The rundown: Valencia, 5 runs, 6 hits and 1 miscue. Brea-Olinda, 4 runs, 5 hits and 1 error. Steve Serafine won it in relief.

Looking back at what could have been a winning season, the Tigers show their season statistics, which unfortunately could have been better. The Tigers were outscored by their opponents 91-67. But Valencia had more hits, 103-98 and more errors, 47-34.

Next year, gone will be (now seniors) pitcher Doug Braddus, reserve outfielder, Roy Ackerman, reserve outfielder, Chuck Melkis and second baseman, Barry

JAA Slates Sign-Ups

Registration for the 1976 season of Junior All American Football will be held on May 19 and 26. The season will open in August.

Registrations will be held both dates at the Rose Drive School, Room 21, in Yorba Linda and at Morse School in the multi-purpose room, in Placentia. Hours on both dates will be from 7 to 9 p.m.

All boys signing up must bring one parent with them. Registration fee is $5 per child. Age limit is 7 to 14 years.

Questions on registration and requirements can be answered by Larry Vinson-haler at 993-1338 or George Dreyer at 528-7820.

LONG RUN—Mike Saucedo and Rich Dutzi take commanding leads in the one mile run at Orange League finals Friday evening at Valencia High. Dutzi won with Saucedo taking second and winning the two mile which Dutzi didn't enter. El Dorado won league and Esperanza finished second. Valencia fared less well, but won the frosh-soph two mile with a faster time than won varsity as Joey Gomez competed in his grade level in order to qualify for CIF.

Hawks Take Track Crown

By BRIAN HILDERBRAND

For the second consecutive year, El Dorado has won the Orange League track crown, edging out Esperanza, 149-115 at Bradford Stadium.

Four varsity records were broken, one of them by El Dorado's Jim Hunt. Hunt ran the 330 low hurdles in 38.2, the old record: 39.6. ED also took first place in five other events. Chuck Lybeck ran the 880 in 1:57.6 to claim a first.

Richard Dutzi took first in the mile for the Hawks with a 4:22.8 clocking.

In the discus event, Kevin Corbett had a throw of 167' 5" for top prize. Rod Hawkins took first in the pole vault for ED with a top height of 12' 6".

The 120 high hurdles was won by Jim Hunt, with a 14.4 timing. It was Hunts' second first place finish of the night. Hunt also finished second in the long jump, and ran a leg in the Hawks mile relay, placing second.

Other meet records set were by Paul Johnson of Brea, with a put of 560' 10 1/4" in the shot put. Esperanza's mile relay team set a new meet record with a clocking of 3:24.8, tapering almost two seconds off the previous record.

Doug Nordquist set a meet record in the triple jump event with a 42' 10" effort.

In the frosh-soph division, Valencia was the league champ with a total of 183 points. El Dorado came in third with 66 1/2 points.

Net Season A Success

BY SCOTT EMBLIDGE

It would be safe to say that Troy High School had an excellent year in tennis. The varsity team finished second in the Freeway League with a 12-2 record, losing both matches to perennial league champion Sunny Hills. The team qualified for the CIF playoffs for the first time in Troy's history.

The junior varsity squad was even more successful on the courts finishing 18-3 record.

Sunny Hills was again the only stumbling block for the Warriors, beating the team once and finishing with an identical record to Troy.

Coach Norm Davis was extremely pleased with the way the players competed and stressed teamwork as the key to both squad's success. Said Davis, "...team pride and unity has brought the team to the level of play that it reached."

The varsity squad had some particularly strong showings such as the 25-3 wins over Fullerton and Lowell, a 27-1 win over Buena Park, and 24-4 wins over Santa Ana Valley, Savanna, and Orange League champion, El Dorado.

The team was led by sophomore Mike Lillie who collected a 41-6-1 record and junior Paul Shaver who coach Davis says is "as strong as Lillie."

The other members of the varsity squad include two seniors, Rich Homan and Kraig Kobayashi, two juniors, Mark Beilen and Jose Pulido and a sophomore, Luis Pulido.

Also, either Terry Breck or Jim Peterson, both juniors, played in each match. Peterson for the first half of the season until Breck took away his spot.

The team may be just as strong next year even with the losses of two-year varsity player Homan and Davis' "real surprise" Kobayashi. Davis calls Kobayashi a "remarkable competitor and a mainstay on our number one doubles team."

The regulars on the J.V. team that Davis cited in particular include Mark Salas, John Reid, Adam Scholze, Tim Sailor and either Breck or Peterson.

Probably the best performances on the J.V. team were turned in by the two doubles teams of Alan Arnold and Eldon Young and Pat Ault and Tom Young.

Arnold and Young were undefeated in 12 matches while Ault and Young, a pair of freshmen, went 12-2 during the season. Both of their losses came against Sunny Hills whose five year undefeated streak was broken this year by Troy's J.V.

That 6-3 victory was a major triumph by the Warriors and a nice feather in the coach's cap. It was, to say the least, very tense with all but one match extended to the full three sets.

Flatten-Huson

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kevin Flatten are at home in Santa Barbara following their marriage March 27 in Fullerton and a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and Carmel. The candlelight ceremony was held at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Sunny Hills with the Rev. Kenneth Hartzheim officiating.

The bride, the former Miss Diana Celia Huson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Huson of Placentia. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orris H. Flatten of Yorba Linda.

The lovely bride wore a picture neckline, empire bodiced gown of candlelight silk organza over peau de soie. The gown was detailed with beaded re-embroidered Alencon and Venise lace.

Her mantilla styled headpiece was trimmed in the matching beaded lace as was her illusion veiling which flowed in layers to compliment the cathedral train of the gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and matador roses.

Miss Joan Huson, sister of the bride, and Miss Lesa Crocker of Auburn, Alabama were maids of honor. They were attired in deep apricot shade chiffon gowns with matching jackets and carried nosegays of apricot carnations.

The groom's sister, Miss Karen Flatten, Miss Nancy Burr of Scottsdale, Arizona, Misses Rena Balmes and Kim Cummins were bridesmaids. They wore pastel apricot gowns similarly designed and carried identical.

Festival To Discuss Carnival

A carnival as a part of the program, who will run the parade this year and the route the parade will take, will be among agenda items discussed at the regular meeting of the Placentia Heritage Festival Days, Richard Samp, president of the group reported this week.

The current meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 13.

New Pre-School Director

Christy Minton has been named the new director of Little Friends Pre-School of Rose Drive Friends Church in Yorba Linda. She assumed her new duties May 3. She accepted the post after three years as a teacher in the school.

"Miss Christy," as the children call her, blends a bright and sparkling personality with a genuine concern for each youngster. When asked what she liked best about Little Friends Pre-School, she immediately responded, "the kids."

Then catching herself in an informality she quickly added, "watching the children develop and make progress is what I like."

She spoke with confidence of the school's reading readiness program, perceptual training and emphasis on balanced growth - physical, mental, emotional, social and spiritual.

"We are interested in the development of each child," she related. She feels good about the "marvelous and dedicated staff" whom she already knows.

When asked about goals for the future Miss Christy spoke of "self-esteem for each child." She hopes to build warm relationships with parents as well as children in order to help the entire family.

Due to her three years of teaching experience in the school a number of parents already came to her fresh insights in to their children.

The new director is laying plans for summer school sessions June 21 - July 9 and July 12 - 30. Enrollment for summer school and for next fall is now open. Interested parents may phone 528-6496 or drop by Rose Drive Friends Church at the corner of Rose Drive and Bastanchury.

Little Friends Pre-School offers a year around program, including morning sessions and afternoon day care for working parents.

CCD Registration

Registration for religious education classes (CCD), will be held from May 17, 1976 through June 10, 1976 at St. Joseph's Religious Education Center.

Those currently registered and attending a CCD class, will be contacted by phone for registration. Those not contacted by June 1, should call the religious education center at 993-0830.

Persons new to the parish or if a child has not been attending a CCD class, may register on Sunday, May 23 or Sunday, June 6 from 8 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Religious Education Center, located above the garage at the rear of the rectory. Those unable to register on these dates, should come to the Religious Education Center Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. or call the center.

Children planning to receive First Communion and Confirmation must have two years of religious instruction prior to receiving these sacraments. Therefore, it is doubly important that children register by June 10, the center emphasized. Registration will not be accepted after June 10.

Questions can be directed to 993-0830.

Delegates

At Convention

The Rev. Erwin G. Walz and Jack Cole will represent Redeemer Lutheran Church, Placentia, at the Annual Convention of the South Pacific District of The American Lutheran Church to be held at the Convention Center in Fresno, California, May 13-15.

Clergy and lay delegates will be representing some 300 congregations of California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Hawaii, New Mexico and West Texas.

The Rt. Rev. Gayler Falde, Bishop of the South Pacific District, will preside at the sessions.

A bicentennial theme, "In Him...Heritage and Hope," together with other aspects of the convention, will relate to the nation's 200th birthday celebration.

The convention offering has been designated for the Guatemala Fund of Lutheran World Relief and Lutheran Social Service Agencies of the District.

Bingo Night Planned By Council

St. Joseph Women's Council is planning an evening of fun playing "White Elephant Bingo." Members are encouraged to bring a White Elephant with them.

Election of new officers will be held at the meeting and all Paid Members may vote for the candidate of their choice.

The event will take place Wednesday, May 12 at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Series Of Seminars

A new concept in group workshops, Behavior Change Seminars, is now being organized in Placentia and Tustin under the supervision of Mrs. Beverly Lunger, whose husband, Clyde, is a marriage, family, child counselor.

Mrs. Lunger, better known to Placentia residents as president of the Placentia Art Association, also is an assertion trainer, which is one of the subjects that will be included in the innovation seminars.

"This is a new organization with a new concept for total personal development. It is not therapy", she explains, "but training for youth through adults based on proven psychological techniques. The seminars are designed to train the individual to be a more effective and responsible person. We use only those techniques that work... that have been proven to be highly effective and psychologically sound".

Mrs. Lunger said this week that a professional staff will be presenting the various workshops. She further states, "Behavior Change Seminars has qualified psychological advisors who review all material which is presented in the training".

Seminars now in process, or being organized, are Self-hypnosis for Weight Control, Stop Smoking and Relaxation for Health.

Registrations are being accepted now for the Weight Control Seminar which starts May 24 for afternoon, and June 7 for evening sessions. The Stop Smoking workshop begins May 20 and Relaxation for Health begins June 16.

George Melzer, Ph.D., who is a clinical psychologist and an associate of Clyde Lunger, will conduct the self-hypnosis instruction. "Dr. Melzer, who has extensive training in hypnosis, will also employ techniques in behavior modification and the psych-logical aspects of overeating", Mrs. Lunger stated. Other workshops being organized, Mrs. Lunger outlined, include a time-extended workshop in which participants can experience what they are doing to themselves and to others around them. The resulting awareness can lead to highly desirable changes. These workshops are conducted by Clyde Lunger, M.A., M.F.C., who is experienced and qualified in this type of personal process.

Behavior Change Seminars will offer workshops for couples, communication skills for youth and adults, workshops dealing with the effects of emotion on health, and assertion training. "We wish to reach the entire family through these seminars, whereby the experience of the training and the skills acquired will penetrate the individual's family, social and business life as well as the school campus", Mrs. Lunger concludes.

The Assertion Training Workshop begins May 17. For information this workshop and the other seminars, call 731-1441.

WE CARE

QUALITY

PETE and JACK are both second generation pharmacists. We both learned from our Dads who were pharmacists and pharmacy owners that QUALITY IS IMPORTANT.

When we talk about quality we mean from companies who have a fine reputation and produce clinical papers on the effectiveness of their drugs.

We do not use medicine from companies we know nothing about and who do not have clinical proof of their products.

Some of these unknown companies MAY be good, but we do not take chances with your medication. They must have clinical evidence to back up their product.

We dispense only one quality of medicine on your prescription and that quality is finest available. We use the same quality for YOUR FAMILY PRESCRIPTIONS as we use on OUR FAMILY PRESCRIPTIONS. We do not take chances with your prescriptions and hope that you do not either.

Sincerely,

Jack Myers

Swimmers On Camera

The taping of a water polo game by ABC television was an exciting experience for the 11 and under age group team of Swim Team of Placentia (STOP) recently at Cerritos College.

The special on water polo will be aired nationwide on ABC's new Ara Parseghian World of Sports in the fall.

STOP won the match with FAST (Fullerton) 7 to 3. STOP led the scoring at the end of the 1st quarter 2-0; 2nd quarter 6-2; 3rd quarter 7-2; and final score 7-3.

STOP scorers were: Tony Bell 2; Chris Woolfold 2, Sandra Oberle 1; Christine Johnson 1.

Commenting on the game Coach Walter Druff said everyone got to play in the game and they all played well as a team.

Four television cameras filmed the game with two on scaffolds at each end of the pool, one above the water level in the middle, and another in the under water viewing room.

Prior to the game an interview with Stacey Hanna was taped. Following the game individual interviews were filmed with Coach Druff, Sandra Oberle, and Tony Bell.

Hawks With A Loss Eye CIF

BY BRIAN HILDERBRAND

El Dorado's tennis team, playing with a juggled lineup, ended their regular season with a 14 1/2-13 1/2 loss to Canyon. The defeat ended the Hawks' 16-match winning streak, winding up with an 18-3 record, 8-1 in league.

ED's top two singles players, Tim Kilker and Blake Von Spreken, played doubles, while the number one doubles team of Brett Bittel and Chris Buck played singles.

El Dorado only got six of a possible 16 points out of the singles players, and seven and one-half points out of the doubles teams.

Playing number one singles for the Hawks was Rob Gourley. Gourley won two of his four sets, one by default. He beat Dave Massey 6-1, and won on a forfeit by Dave Roeske.

Chris Buck played the number two spot, and came up with only one victory, against Roeske, 6-3.

Brett Bittel, number three singles, also won only one set. He beat Roeske 6-4. Like Buck, it was the first time in league that either has played singles.

Steve McAllen played fourth singles for the Hawks. He won two of his sets on against Sam Neer, 7-5, and Massey, 6-1.

In doubles, the duo of Kilker and Von Spreken swept, giving up only four games. They beat the team of Dave Geyer and Fred Popke, 6-2, 6-1, and beat Tom Mason and Perry Adnams, 6-1, 6-0.

Tracy Pierson and Paul Howes lost a pair to Geyer-Popke, 4-6, 2-6, and split with Mason-Adnams, 6-2, and 3-6.

Friday and Saturday of last week the Orange League Finals were played, to determine the individual champs. Tim Kilker and Brent Bevard battled for the singles championship on Tuesday.

Next up for the Hawks will be CIF team competition this Friday against an undetermined opponent.
